Brighton based Manipulate has just unveiled the first full length release on his own Nause Corps label, the excellent debut album from Grandeurs Of Delusion titled 'A Stale Breath of Fresh Ahh'.

Since he set up the label last year and set it off in style with the excellent 7" 'Bad Karma b/w Strontium Sleazewave' co-produced with Trash Weston from The Orb, we've been waiting for a follow up, and it was worth the wait.

G.O.D regroups Manipulate, Deviant Ted and the one and only Square One for 17 tracks of eclectic niceness with scratches and cuts complimenting the production. Guest spots from NozL's Lone Wolf, Lorn and I.D.O round off a musical package that packs a heavy punch. If that's not enough here's a quote from BBC Radio 1's Mary Anne Hobbs: "Agile and extraordinary rhythms.... Their sinister and intoxicating textures stopped me in my tracks..".

The album is out now in CD and digital formats for the respective prices of 10 and 7 pounds. Go to nausecorps.com and get your ordering on. Shipping is worldwide and there should be some stock in the US and other parts of the world shortly. Oh yeah and the cover artwork is also off the hook.
